

Work in groups

Look at the picture.

1. Where is Paul now?
2. Is he happy?
3. What is he thinking about?
4. How did he get where he is today?

5. What was Paul's job before?
6. Did he make a lot of money?
7. Was he popular?
8. Did he have a lot of girlfriends?

Work with a partner and write six sentences about things Paul used to do or used to have and things he has and does today. Use your imagination.

Example:

Paul used to eat in expensive restaurants, but now he has bread and water.

9. Share your sentences with other groups.
10. Discuss things that you used to do when you were a child.